

MAS Mentoring Program

Are you thinking of majoring or minoring in MAS (Mexican American Studies) ?

Do you need advice or information ?

Here is the contact information of some volunteer MAS Graduate Students who accepted to mentor and guide you along that journey. They will help you see how Mexican-American Studies is relevant in many different fields such as law, medicine, global studies, art and so on. So please, feel free to contact them.

ALVES, Sophie - salves1@email.arizona.edu

Women and Mexican migration; fertility; the politics of reproduction; images and representation; anti-immigrant discourses; media; "Latina threat"; the U.S.-Mexico border; "anchor babies"; social construction; transnational families.

ANDRADE, Yesenia - andradey@email.arizona.edu

Space and place; architecture; design; health/wellness; immigrant families; spatial activism; structural violence; urban planning; policy; community building.

CID, David - dcid@email.arizona.edu

Chicana/o history; barrio activism and third world; cultural nationalist and socio-political movements in the U.S.; third space intellectual movement (Chicana/o studies and Indigenous studies).

COULTER, Kiera - kcoulter@email.arizona.edu

Health disparities; border health.

GONZALEZ, Adrianna - adriannagonzalez@email.arizona.edu

Latina/os and higher education; mental health; predominately white institutions and spaces.

HIGUERA, Gabriel - ghiguera@email.arizona.edu

Education and access; college and community collaborations; Ethnic studies and social justice pedagogy.

HOLM, Andrea - ahholm@email.arizona.edu

Borderlands identity; Mexicanas and Mexican American women; oral traditions; resiliency and decolonialism.

JAUREGUI, Graciela - gjauregui@email.arizona.edu

Undocumented immigrant health issues; minority health (Latino health); health disparities; health and human rights; U.S.-Mexico border health.

LEWIS, Cecilia - clewis1@email.arizona.edu

Border theory; oral history; Mexican American women; history of the Southwest; decolonialism.

MOJARDIN-LOPEZ, Maria Jose - mojardin@email.arizona.edu

Mexican migration; Mexican immigrants and access to health; Mexican immigrant women and sexual and reproductive health; Mexican immigrant women and mental health.

SALDANA Perez, Joel - jasp98@email.arizona.edu

Latino health and wellness; Indigenous Studies; traditional medicine; Mexican folkloric dance; translation/interpretation.

TESO, Barbara - bteso@email.arizona.edu

The culture and history strand of the MAS program; women's oral history of folkloric dance in Tucson, AZ; borderlands feminism.

